Modern Senior Secondary School, Patiala, had the privilege of hosting the Chinmaya Amrit Yatra, a remarkable 295-day, 35,000-kilometre national pilgrimage celebrating 75 glorious years

The spiritual experience continued in the evening when the school's Music Department presented a soulful Kirtan at a commemorative event organised by Chinmaya Mission, Patiala. The of Chinmaya Mission. Popularly known as 'Wisdom on Wheels', the Yatra featured engaging exhibits highlighting the life and teachings of Swami Chinmayananda and the timeless philosophy of Vedanta. The initiative aimed to spread the message of knowledge, spiritual awareness, selfless service and moral values among students and communities.

devotional melodies created an atmosphere of peace, faith and serenity. The Hon'ble Governor of Punjab was also present on the occasion.

The visit gave students and the school community a meaningful opportunity to connect with India's rich spiritual heritage and reflect on the values of wisdom, compassion, and service that guide us toward a better life.
