CHILDREN'S DAY IS celebrated to mark the importance of children in our lives. We all share the desire for the well being of our children, which has always been and will continue to be the most universally cherished aspiration of human kind. Children's day was celebrated in our school and focus of the day was children and their enjoyment. This day is celebrated every year with grand splendor. This year Children celebrated this day in different ways in their classrooms with their class teachers. Children from all wings were found overjoyed. It is celebrated as this is the birthday of PT. Jawaharlal Nehru, the first prime minister. He was popularly known as Cha-Cha Nehru.

The children celebrated the day by cutting cakes.

Primary wing students wore masks and they danced and played some games in their classes. Teachers delivered lectures in the classes on the importance of children's day. Middle and senior wing students played games like dumb charades, etc. and they sang songs and danced. Students acted like their favourite teachers. Their day was commemorated with immense joy, enthusiasm and magnificence. It was a fun filled day for the students. The campus was buzzing with excitement and joy of children. May all children be blessed with good health, success and happiness.
