

SPARKLING BAISAKHI

~ DIBJOT KAUR –XIIC ~

Reporter, Modern School Life Magazine

May 20, 2017.

THE DAY GURU GOBIND SINGH JI transformed sparrows into vultures, the day people of all castes stood up and were equal to kings and the day we realized the power of five was the auspicious day of Baisakhi. Though the state had celebrated the festival on 13th of April 2017. But, we at Modern School celebrated it on 20th of May 2017. The school hall was decorated by the Art and Craft and the Stage Decoration Club concerning the theme of Baisakhi. The hall was decorated with the hand made dhols, crops, men and women dancing in

She gave a beautiful speech in our mother - tongue 'Punjabi'. The speeches of the both the girls were the blend of the significance of Baisakhi, religious background of Baisakhi foundation of Khalsa Panth. The performers started the Bhangra and the wave of enjoyment flew in the hall. They performed with uncommon elan on stage. The performance was appreciated by a blasting applause by the students and a word of appreciation by the Vice Principal, Mrs. Manpreet Sharma. She Bhangra outfits and the phulkaris .

The chief guests of the event were the Vice Principal, Mrs. Manpreet Sharma and Mr. Vishavjit Verma. The students of class 10th and 12th were invited to enjoy the Bhangra of the students by Drama Society Club. The event was started by the introductory speech by Dibjot Kaur of +2 C . The speech was a small interpretation of the overall Baisakhi festival. After Dibjot Kaur concluded, the Dias was shared by Gurmanjit Kaur of +2 C.

complimented the Drama Society Club, the Art and Craft club and the Stage Decoration Club as well as the teachers who helped the students. (Mrs. Parwinder Kaur, Mrs. Maninder Kaur). She rewarded all the participants with 200 points, which will be added to their respective houses. The ecstatic audience left the hall after the wondrous event. The hard work of students left the footprints of the pleasurable festival on the minds of the audience.