“MUSIC IS A PIECE of art that goes through ears straight to the heart.”

When we, the reporters of Life Magazine went to the music room to sense how music goes through ears straight to the heart ,we noticed that students were learning instruments such as Harmonium, Guitar, Tabla, Drums, etc. which are presently available in the school’s instrumental Ji and was sung by the Legendary Lata Mangeshkar. The students were now learning it on various variations. Some of them were learning how to sing it while some were trying it out on the Harmonium and when we were sitting aside, we were so impressed and fascinated that we forgot to go back to the Life Magazine room till the last bell of the school rang. Hence, we music room. The students were divided into different groups. When we asked Ms. Kudrat Singh (Instructor) about it, we came to know that those students who have good vocals were learning a new shabad named “Re Man Aiso Kar Sanyasa” which was originally written by Shri Guru Gobind Singh came to know that Music is something so special that it touches our hearts and we came to know the importance of music in our lives and reached the conclusion that it is truly said that “Music is a piece of art that goes through ears straight to the heart” .
