WE ARE REALLY GRATEFUL to our management and school for arranging unique workshops for the

But it rained so heavily that the programme had to be shifted to the school hall. Everyone enjoyed whole school to enlighten our minds and work selflessly to exceed the excellence .

In MSSSP, a wonderful workshop was organized from July 15 to July 19, 2019 which was mentored by Shri Prabhat Rao , a great Indian classical vocalist. The whole school recited HANUMAN CHALISA and all learnt to sing it in four different melodious ragas. It was an amazing and soul stirring event. The whole atmosphere of the school was enveloped in divinity .

Last day, 19July 2019 was the finale and the arrangements were made in the inner courtyard.

it though there was a heavy downpour .

Finale was followed by the Vijay Rattan award ceremony which is awarded keeping in mind the exceptional excellence of a student.

We are extremely grateful to dear Prabhat Rao ji for such beautiful teachings in an unusual and informal way.

After the completion of the session, we learnt that like Hanumanji we should always be ready to accomplish any task assigned to us .We also learnt that we should also believe in ourselves.
