The students of MSSSP enthusiastically celebrated Deepawali. Students from Primary Wing participates in various activities like decorating diyas and candles. The Middle Wing students decorated the school with eye-catching Rangolis at various places.

Students were full of energy, positivity and enthusiasm while performing various activities and their faces were glowing with the grace of the God Almighty.

The Senior Wing students organised a Special Assembly for the junior students. There was Panj Pauri Path and Shabad recitation Deewali di Raat.

The Sanctity of DEEPAWALI was very nicely explained by the students. The whole atmosphere of the school was enveloped with positivity and happiness. Lastly, they did not forget to convey the message of sharing and caring for needy people.
