Modern Senior Secondary School, Patiala (MSSSP) recently organized an Inter-House Quiz competition for classes 3-5, testing students' knowledge and skills in a fun and engaging way.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from "Unscrambling" round, which challenged their problem-solving skills.

Throughout the competition, students showcased their skills and knowledge, displaying confidence and teamwork. The event not only encouraged students, who demonstrated their knowledge and critical thinking abilities across various rounds.

The competition consisted of diverse rounds, including "Identify the Sound", where students recognized different sounds; a "Picture-Based" round, which tested their visual knowledge; Multiple-Choice Questions (MCQs) that assessed their General Knowledge; and an healthy competition among the houses but also fostered a love for learning and exploration.

In the end, Hemant House emerged victorious, claiming the top spot with their impressive performance. All participants received certificates of participation, and the winning house was awarded prizes.

Congratulations to all the participants!!!
