On November 29, 2024, our school organized a _____ by the students, promising to care for their memorable and heartwarming programme to celebrate the special bond between children and their grandparents. The primary aim of this beautiful event was to foster stronger connections between the younger and elder generations, nurturing respect and affection for our beloved seniors.

The event was graced by the presence of the grandparents of our students, as well as esteemed elderly residents from the Rongla Village Old Age Home. We were honoured to welcome distinguished guests from Helpage India, including Mr. Bhavneshwar Sharma, the Director and State Head of Chandigarh, Punjab, Haryana, and Jammu & Kashmir, Ms. Arti Tikoo, the Deputy Director of Chandigarh and Mr. Lakhvinder Sareen, Senior Manager at the grandparents and elderly members of society.

The programme included a variety of performances: a delightful Hasya Vyangya, a lively Short Skit and a Poem Recital. The elderly guests shared inspiring stories and experiences, offering wisdom that deeply touched everyone present. The audience was captivated by a classic dance performance, the "Durga Stuti," showcasing cultural grace and devotion. A Painting Competition for grandparents also added a creative touch to the day, with the winners receiving heartfelt applause and well-deserved prizes.

The event concluded on a spiritual note with a beautiful shabad performed by the school's music team, leaving everyone with a sense of peace and joy.

Our heartfelt thanks goes to Mrs. Manpreet

Patiala Old Age Home.

The day began with a traditional Ganesh Vandana, setting a peaceful and auspicious tone for the celebration. Students then lovingly tied hug bands to the elderly guests, symbolizing their affection and respect. A touching pledge was made

Sharma, the Principal, for her leadership and gratitude, and to everyone who contributed in making this event a grand success. This meaningful and enriching programme was a true celebration of love, respect, and togetherness, strengthening the invaluable connection between generations.
