Modern Senior Secondary School, Patiala, hosted a seminar on 31 August 2024 titled "Effective Teaching and Teacher as a Role Model," led by Mrs. Pallavi, an educator with 15 years of teaching, administration, and school in shaping the values and character of their students by offering real-world examples to instill life lessons.

The seminar promoted interactive teaching strategies, encouraging teachers to explore creative management expertise.

The seminar focused on enhancing teaching skills while emphasizing the importance of the teacher's role as a mentor and moral guide for students.

Mrs. Pallavi shared insights into maintaining motivation as an educator and the need for adapting teaching methods to suit diverse learning styles. She stressed that teachers play a pivotal role methods like outdoor classes and audio-visual aids to make lessons more engaging and impactful. Participants were also guided to identify and develop their core teaching competencies while addressing common classroom errors.

The workshop concluded with practical tips on creating a stimulating learning environment, aiming to elevate the teaching experience and students' learning outcomes.
