Modern Senior Secondary School celebrated Basant Panchami with great zeal and cultural fervour, welcoming the arrival of spring and paying homage to Goddess Saraswati, the divine symbol of knowledge and wisdom. The entire campus was immersed in cheerful shades of yellow, reflecting positivity, prosperity, and the joy of learning.

The celebration began with a special morning assembly that set a serene and devotional tone. A melodious Saraswati Vandana was followed by a well-articulated, thoughtful speech by Mehar Deep Kaur (Grade IX), highlighting the significance of the festival. The assembly by the Music Department, filling the atmosphere with calmness and festivity.

Students from Grades I and II enthusiastically participated by wearing bright yellow masks and enjoying a nature walk around the campus, observing blooming flowers and signs of spring.

Grade III students shared yellow-coloured dishes, promoting values of sharing and friendship. Grade IV students participated in a book exchange activity to encourage reading, while Grade V students displayed creativity through kite-making, poster design, and slogan writing.

The celebration beautifully blended tradition, creativity, and learning, making Basant Panchami a concluded with a soulful Basant Raga presented joyful and enriching experience for all.
